Dear Harriet:

As you have probably noticed, the last issue of the Newsletter did not ask that suggestions for Chapter officer nominations be sent to a member of the Nominating Committee.

Do you think that a mail ballot with provision for write-in vote will make the procedure sufficiently democratic? After all, it is not customary for organizations to have the general membership suggest nominations.

Please let me hear from you.

Sincerely,

Corinne Bass, President
Southeastern Chapter, A. A. L. L.
